

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Annual "Week of Prayer" Will Begin on the Second Day of January.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS' ELECTION

The annual "week of prayer" will be held the first week of the New Year, beginning January 2, it was decided at a meeting of members of the South Omaha Ministerial union at St. Luke's Lutheran church at Twenty-fifth and K streets last week. Arrangements were made for the week of meetings.

The meetings will be held nightly at the different churches of the city, according to the custom. At the meeting of the union, Rev. S. H. Yerlan, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran church, was elected president, and Rev. William R. Hill, pastor of Trinity Baptist church, secretary.

Royal Neighbors Elect.
At a meeting of Clover Leaf lodge, No. 8, Royal Neighbors of America, Thursday evening, officers were elected. They are: Clara Merriman, orator; Mary Bruce, vice orator; Kittle Bowker, poet; Belle Bailey, chancellor; Mary Hugenberg, recorder; Sarah Hathaway, receiver; Anna Finley, marshal; Albert Taylor, inner sentinel; Clara White, outer sentinel; Belle Grother, Julia Pulliam and Amelia Green, managers; Drs. Enser, Beck, Davis and Smith, physicians.

Died in California.

News was received from San Diego, Cal., yesterday, that Mrs. Petera Buisson, aged 34 years, formerly Miss Mary Gules of this city, died yesterday at the home of her husband in California. She is survived by her husband and four children. A father, a brother, Robert, and a sister, Mrs. John O'Keefe, of this city also survive.

The body will arrive tomorrow evening. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of Josephine Gules, in Sappo county. Interment will be in the St. Mary's cemetery.

Held for Assault.

Mike Miller, arrested on a charge of attempted assault on two little girls, Justo Pakato, 4-year-old daughter of Mrs. Rose Pakato, and Anna Gullis, 4-year-old daughter of Mrs. A. Gullis, Twenty-eighth and T streets, was bound over Friday morning in the South Side police court by Police Judge Reed to the Douglas county sanitarium. It was charged this morning that Miller was insane when he attempted criminal acts.

Clay Robinson Wins.

Clay Robinson took two out of three games from the Sheep Barn gang, who appeared for the first time in the Stock Yards league.
